Transcomm Credit Union Privacy Disclosure and Consent

We collect personal information about you. When you join the Credit Union, we are required to comply with the Financial Transactions Reports Act by collecting information about your identity. In addition, we collect your personal information to provide you with information that we are by law required to give you, to provide you with products or services you have requested, and to provide you with information about our products and services.

You will be able, in most cases, to gain access to your personal information by contacting us using the contact details below.

In order to provide you with a product or service you have requested, we may need to disclose your personal information to our related companies or to organisations to which we contract out functions, such as our mailing house, solicitors, plastic card and electronic transactions service provider, cheque printers, car buying advisory services and storage and archiving services.

We only collect the personal information necessary to comply with the law and to provide you with the products and services you request. If you fail to provide us with your personal information, we may be unable to provide you with the products and services you have requested, or to provide you with information about our products or services.

We also use your personal information to provide you with information about other products and services we, or companies within our group offer, and for other purposes including the direct marketing of these and other products and services which we may offer from time to time. We also keep your application form and any financial records of our dealings with you.
